Designation of Applicant's Agent for Federal and State Financial Assistance

In order to receive state and federal disaster funds from the California Governor's Office of Emergency Services and the Federal Emergency Management Agency, the Orange County Transportation Authority is required to adopt a "Designation of Applicant's Agent Resolution." The designated agent(s) are authorized to apply and submit for financial assistance following a declared disaster.

Adopt Resolution No. 2019-019 designating the Chief Executive Officer and Deputy Chief Executive Officer as Orange County Transportation Authority's agents for executing applications for federal and/or state disaster assistance on behalf of the Orange County Transportation Authority.
