Service Authority for Freeway Emergencies Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2017-18

The Orange County Transportation Authority provides a full complement of motorist services designed to keep motorists safe and well-informed of roadway and traffic conditions acting as the Service Authority for Freeway Emergencies for Orange County. Collectively, these programs focus on assisting stranded freeway motorists; mitigating traffic congestion; and providing information on highway conditions, transit services, and other traveler information through the Southern California 511 system. This report provides an update on program activities for fiscal year 2017-18
